GENERAL RULES

- Courses need to be chosen by a minimum number of students to start. Students who have chosen a not-activated language course will be given the chance to make a new choice
- Classes are scheduled during the week (2 hours and 30', once a week)
- Courses last for one semester (the 2nd semester of the first year)
- No exemptions
- Exam to get the final language qualification
- The final language qualification depends on the positive evaluation at the end of the course

LESSON ATTENDANCE AND E-LEARNING CONTENT

- Attendance is important as participation is a part of students' final evaluation. Active participation in lessons is also the best preparation for the final, for-credit, exam
- E-Learning content supports students in their coursework to assimilate subjects covered during lessons through blended learning. The materials can be found on LUISS Learn - <http://learn.luiss.it/>
